

I find the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to be very effective in keeping me from being harassed by telemarketers. I do not want this law to be weakened to the Federal standard, which would allow telemarketers to contact me based on the fact that I have done business with them in the past. This would interfere with my rights to privacy! Do not allow this!